All the world's a stage . . .

Shakespeare was so right. We're all players and have our exits and entrances on the modern scene. How effective an impression we make depends on what we wear—and that's our cue. Camp's has been "on the stage" since 1886, outfitting men and boys (and more recently, ladies, too). Nice part is, we're just a few miles away.

Saturday night marks the final performance of the 37th season of The Ivoryton Playhouse, adding another milestone in American Summer Theatre. Nowhere in this country has a playhouse compiled such an enviable record of entertainment through its consistent managership by Mr. Milton Stiefel. Needless to say we are most indebted to our faithful and discerning audiences for making such a record possible. You have enabled us to go from a resident stock company to our current policy of presenting packages of outstanding Broadway and Hollywood stars and plays.

We also wish to thank our staff who handled the many complex behind-the-scene phases of our operation. Already we are beginning to lay plans for our 1967 season, and we hope to see you all back next year to enjoy another excellent schedule of plays. If you are not on our mailing list, fill out one of the cards in the lobby.

Until then, a happy year to you all!

Milton Stiefel
